London, April 9.

IN our last we incerted a Letter from the Pope to the King of France, which he sent with a Bull, condemning a certain Book call'd, A Case of Conscience, &c. The Bull it self runs thus,

Clement XI Pope.

' Some Papers having lately been publish'd, and printed in French, intitl'd, A Case of Conscience propos'd by a Country Confessor, &c. And several of our Venerable Brothers the Cardinals of the Holy Roman Church, which we chose to examine the said Papers, after having examin'd and carefully weigh'd the same, having given their Opinion that they ought to be condemn'd and forbidden. We, following the Example shewn us by the Eternal Shepherd, and desiring as far as in us lyes to preserve the Sheep of the Lord from what may hurt them; do condemn and reprove, by virtue of our Apostolical Authority, by these presents, the said Papers, and forbid the reading or keeping of them; And we absolutely prohibit, on pain of Excommunication, the Printing and Reading of those Papers, ordaining by the same Authority, That all those who shall have those Papers, shall put them into the Hands of their Curates, or the Inquisition: Now to the End that these Presents may be seen by every one, and that none may pretend Ignorance, we Will and Command that the same be affix'd according to Custom to the Gates of the Cathedral of the Prince of the Apostles, and of the Apostolical Chancery, &c. by one of our Hussars; And that Copies of the same remain affix'd to the said Places; to the end that being publish'd in that manner, they may have the same Force as if they were signified to every Person in particular.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated April 5.
Vienna, March 21. The Emperor holds frequent Councils of State on the Affairs of the present Conjunction: The Day before yesterday being St. Joseph's Day, whose Name the King of the Romans bears, his Majesty was complimented thereupon by the Court and the Foreign Ministers. Two French Capuchins were lately seiz'd in Hungary, who were going to Constantinople with Letters for the French Ambassador at the Ottoman Port; Those Capuchins lately pass'd through this City, and pretended they were going to Jerusalem, upon which our Bishop granted them a Passport; But the Governour of a certain Place, on the Frontiers of Hungary, after he had seen their Passport, taking them apart and examining each by himself, catch'd them in different Stories, whereupon he put them in Prison, order'd them to be more strictly examin'd, and brought them to confess the Business they were going about, and to deliver up their Letters to him. 'Tis said our Hussars have lately intercepted some Bills of Exchange of a considerable Value, that were remitted from France to the Elector of Bavaria.
